

A Shared Prayer

Our God, the soul that you have implanted within us is pure.

*You created and formed it,
breathed it into us,
and sustain it each and every day.*

So long as we have life, we will be grateful to you, Adonai/God/Allah, our God and God of our mother and father, Creator of all life, Sustainer of every human spirit.

*Blessed are you, Adonai/God/Allah, in whose hands are the souls of all life,
and the spirits of all flesh.*

Daughters of Abraham

An interfaith group of Jewish, Muslim, and Christian women

About Daughters of Abraham

Daughters of Abraham was founded after 9/11 as an humble means of restoring peace to a troubled world. Scouring the community for women who would put aside their vulnerability and reach out in courage to those of other faiths, Janice Lord, founder, persisted until she had a small group of six women from each faith.

Since 2001, hundreds of women have sought out the group and discovered a treasure of interfaith relationships. No one denies the differences of their faiths, but the focus is on similarities. As authentic friendships develop, the differences seem to matter less and less. The women rejoice in their common monotheism, and they share a love of God and desire for peace in the community and the world.
